Guidelines for Resume Writing

Keep it brief. A recent high school graduate resume should be limited to one page. The longer it is, the less chance of it being read or comprehended. Potential employers spend about five seconds looking at a resume before they decide if they are going to discard it or keep reading.
Avoid long paragraphs- one or two lines of information is sufficient and utilize bullet points to summarize information.

2.